

Chinook Club of America, Inc. Application for Registered Breeders, Stud Owners, and Up & Coming Chinooks

We ask that any individual considering registration as a breeder, stud owner, or owner of an up and coming breed potential Chinook read and personally adopt the recommendations set forth in the Chinook Club of America Guidelines for Breeders of the Chinook.

We recommend that Chinook breeders and stud owners advertise their breeding stock in an appropriate manner that proudly represents the breed. Advertisement through the Chinook Club of America website will generate inquiries from potential puppy owners, as well as potential breeding mates for your Chinooks without compromising the integrity of your kennel or our wonderful breed. Fees will benefit both you and the Chinook Club of America in magazine advertisements, rescue, health research, and general club business. We provide the following services for all CCA members in good standing with payment of fees:

$50 Breeders Registration Package gives you up to one calendar year (Jan- Dec of paid year) of advertisement services through Chinook Club of America's website (www.chinookclubofamerica.org) and quarterly newsletter, The Chinook Advocate. - A photo that represents your kennel, your kennel name, your contact information and a link to your website will be posted on the CCA Breeders Page. If you do not have a website, CCA will host a single webpage for you to advertise your kennel.
